

Support the Library

The Black Watch Memorial Library truly appreciates all of the support we receive from the community – and we depend on that support to help continue providing excellent service to our patrons.

A gift to the Library is a meaningful way to honor a loved one and benefits the entire community. Here are some examples of the types of gifts the Library accepts:

- Monetary donations: The Library accepts monetary donations through estates, wills, and charitable giving by individuals.
- Memorial Books: Patrons can give funds toward the purchase of materials, or donate new materials in the name of a loved one or friend who has passed away. The staff can work with you to select the perfect title. Items are plated with the name of the person being memorialized.
- Honor of Books: Patrons can give funds toward the purchase of materials, or donate new materials in the name of someone they to honor. Honor books make great gifts.
- Birthday Club books: Honor someone's special day with the purchase or donation of a new book. Books are plated with the honoree's name and birthday.
- Adopt-a-Book: From time to time the Library has collections of titles ready to choose from, just ask at the circulation desk. Another great way to give a gift.
- Used Book Donations: The Library accepts used books, dvds and audiobooks at our book sale location. Please ask for our used book donation policy at the circulation desk.
